18 On April 24, 2015, the Court held a probation status hearing regarding Santwan Edwards'
19 progress on probation. Prior to the hearing, counsel for Mr. Edwards and the probation office
20 filed status reports informing the Court about ongoing issues Mr. Edwards was having obtaining 21 permission to attend the several religious services and functions that occur weekly at his church.
22 At that hearing, the Court encouraged the parties to meet and confer, and the Court set this matter
23 for further status on May 29, 2015.

24 The parties have met and conferred and the probation office has reached an agreement
25 with the halfway house that will allow Mr. Edwards to have an additional program pass during 26

1 the week to attend church functions. In short, Mr. Edwards is permitted to attend church
2 functions on program and/or religious passes on Wednesday evenings, Friday evenings, Saturday
3 afternoons and Sunday mornings. He is also permitted a weekly four-hour community pass to 4 use for special church functions or to attend to personal matters. Because the issues raised at the 5 status hearing appear to have been resolved, the parties jointly request that the Court continue
6 this matter to July 24, 2015, at 9:30 a.m., in Oakland, California, for Mr. Edwards' regularly
7 scheduled probation status hearing.
